Ramblers

Pete Chadwick writes:

The latest outing of the Ramblers was on Wednesday 17th June, a 4-mile saunter around Maisemore and along the banks of the Severn; lunching at The White Hart in Maisemore. Our next sortie will probably be around Arlingham on 31st July, which Mike will lead.

If you're not on our Ramblers list but would like to come along, contact Pete Chadwick, pete@thechads.org, or Mike Dearden, mike@thedeardens.co.uk.

The Jolly Boys

Pete Chadwick writes:

It's not usual to report the lunching activities of The Jolly Boys, but on Tuesday we had a superb experience which members might find of interest. Seven of the JBs went over to Hardwicke for a couple of hours before lunch and had a wonderful Falconry experience. We spent time getting very close to a multitude of birds of prey, as you can see from these photos. It was a fascinating and enlightening morning which all, to a man, enjoyed thoroughly.

Well worth a group visit to The Falconry School, www.thefalconryschool.com.

Music Group

Ian McPherson writes:

Seven of us met on June 18th to hear selections on Food & Drink. As you might expect the tracks roamed far and wide from Cornish Oggies (pasties) to Red, Red Wine via Bananas. The next meeting will be on July 9th at 10am in the Library when the topic will be Three Songs Personal To Me. If you'd like a taster, please just come and listen, you don't have to bring any selections.

Quiz Night

Angie Kirkpatrick writes:

The quiz night on June 5th was very well attended again and topics such as Politics and 60's Lyrics kept the rabble quiet for a while. Despite the hard-fought competition, the Wingers won (again!)

Please sign up for the next one on Friday July 3rd. (I'm in the chair again)
A reminder that we start promptly at 5 and the price including a small meal is now £15.

House Notes

Marilyn Burn writes:

Garden Party: this was a very English garden party. For a short period we sat in the garden under umbrellas. But then the weather relented, umbrellas came down, and everyone enjoyed Pimms and Ryan's new cocktails, as well as the delicious canapes. Jane's garden looked magnificent, and it was a thoroughly enjoyable early evening. Quite a few of you have written to thank Jane, and someone left a box of chocolates for her. She has asked me to thank whoever it was because there was no identification, but she is proposing to eat them over the next few days.

Thank goodness she has given me a few weeks off for good behaviour, but I shall be back on duty by the beginning of August to prepare the garden for our tea party in September.

A Classical Recital by Hannah Davey: Tuesday June 23rd

I shall still be on my bed of pain on the day of this supper, and Mario has kindly agreed to host it for me. So, I suggested that, as he is a Neapolitan himself, he should choose a Neapolitan menu. He has done that, and he tells me that it is truly delicious. I am sulking, as I shall probably be on gruel still. But don't you give me a thought, you just go ahead and enjoy yourselves. And Mario tells me that he will be playing a little game with you at the end of dinner.....

An Evening in the Caribbean: July 15th 6-11pm Members £40 Guests £50

This is becoming a tradition at the Club, thanks entirely of course to Mary Dearden whose idea it was and who arranges the whole thing. We are very grateful indeed to her because this is always one of the most fun evenings of the years.

Mary says:

"It's Calypso time. Jamani, with his Award-winning tin-pan music, is back with us once again on Wednesday 15th July. We are hoping the sun will shine and we can recapture the fun of the Caribbean with great music and cocktails in the garden. Starting at 6pm, Jamani will play for an hour and at 7.15pm the ever-resourceful Carl will serve a Caribbean supper for us all to enjoy. Feel free to dress casually in your favourite colourful holiday clothes – gentlemen, this is your moment to bring out those shirts languishing at the back of the wardrobe! It promises to be another fun, sunshine filled evening, full of music, colour and flavour. Looking forward to seeing you all".

After dinner you can dance in the coffee room to a Caribbean disco, or sit in the garden with a drink, and no need to go home until 11pm.

Have fun!

Bookings: do try the new booking website. Copies of the simple instructions are printed out to take away on the hall table, and are included again with this. You can book not only these events, but Stephen Cole's talk on Water, Water Everywhere, as well as the cricket marquee events, Hog Roast, Lunch on the Lawns, and Lobster & Champagne.

Our talented members:

Marilyn Gough, our artist-in-residence, whose work many of you will know both from the auction last year and from her Gallery in the Suffolks for many years, is having an exhibition to which we are all invited.

The Art Exhibition named Process and Place is to be held at the Gardens Gallery, Montpellier Park.

24th -- 29th June. 10am - 5pm.

Marilyn will be showing a selection of her poured and resin paintings and would love to welcome you to the Gallery, where she will be stewarding all day on Wednesday, Saturday and Sunday and Monday afternoon. There's a chance to meet and discuss everything about the art with the three participating artists: Joanne Humphries, Lisa Livery and Marilyn Gough on Sunday 28th June 2th -4 pm. Free entry. Everyone's very welcome.
Do go along and support her!

Deborah Lanyon: our newest member is a professional violinist and is also organising some wonderful operas in gorgeous places. The details are too full to include here, but a copy is up on the noticeboard.

Deborah says:

"In summary, dates for the Opera Evenings are: -

17th JULY - Painswick Rococo Garden

19th JULY - Berkeley Castle

FIGARO will take place on: -
